(c) what are the reasons therefor; and

(d) what is the number of parties which have been allotted more than one stall at different major Railway stations in the country?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MAHABIR PRASAD): (a) Allotment of catering/vending contracts is done by the Zonal Railways by inviting applications through press notifications and/or notices displayed at Railway Stations. Applications so received are scrutinised by a Screening Committee and based on their recommendations, the contract is awarded to the most suitable candidates on merits.

(b) and (c) To meet the requirements of passengers, Himachal Pradesh Horticultural Produce Marketing & Processing Corporation Ltd., a Government Undertaking, has been permitted to set up 2 stalls each at Delhi and New Delhi Railway stations.

(d) Information is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the Sabha.

Students applying for admission in Delhi University and its colleges

173. SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what is the number of students who applied for admission in various colleges and University in Delhi in this year;

(b) the total number of students who could not get admission;

(c) whether Government have formulated any policy to get the students admitted in various colleges of Delhi; and

(d) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI L. P. SHAHI): (a) and (b) According to the provisions of relevant University Ordinances, all those who have passed Senior Secondary Certificate Examinations (Class XII) of the CBSE, New Delhi or an examination recognised at equivalent thereto with 40 per cent or above marks are eligible for admission to undergraduate courses in colleges as regular students, subject to the minimum age limit of 17 years.

As students apply for admission to more than one course and in more than one college simultaneously and the process of admission is still on, the number of students who have applied for admission and the number of students who have not been able to obtain admission cannot be precisely indicated. However, the University has indicated that it should be in a position to absorb all the eligible candidates in the current academic year.

(c) and (d) The University has been taking steps to meet the growing demand for admissions by gradually increasing its intake capacity every year. The Delhi Administration has established three new colleges last year. The University has approved in principle proposals to open two new colleges viz. College of Applied Sciences for Women, Shahdara of Delhi Administration and College of Aeronautical Studies of Air Force Officers' Welfare Society.
